Tip: Number your framelits from #1 to #6 (#1 being the largest framelit & #6 being the smallest framelit). You can write on them with Sharpies.

Step-By-Step Directions

- Using window sheet, punch out pieces (purse and handle) with Big Shot and Petite Purse Bigz L die. Place purse cut-out in Vintage Wallpaper embossing folder leaving bottom of purse sticking out of embossing folder. Don't emboss bottom. Run through Big Shot. Place other side of purse in Vintage Wallpaper embossing folder (again leaving bottom sticking out of folder) and run through Big Shot. Note: Make sure to center in design of embossing folder.
- Assemble sides of purse with sticky strip. Attach handle with glue dots. Attach button from Brights Collection of Buttons with glue dot on front of purse. Attach 1/4" velcro dot under button. Note: Because purse is cut from window sheet and not from card stock, the tab/slit closure for purse does not work. Tab slips out from slit.
- Ink up "Thanks So Much" stamp from It's a Wrap Occasion with Early Espresso ink. Using Q-Tip, rub off ink from words, "Thanks So Much". With More Mustard Marker, color in "Thanks" and "Much". With Red Riding Hood Marker, color in "So". Stamp this wrap on 4 address labels from label sheet. Wrap each label around a Hershey's Nugget.
- Put a small amount of red crinkle filling paper in the bottom of the assembled purse. Add the wrapped nuggets (back-to-back) inside the purse so you can see the "Thanks So Much" through front and back of purse. Add a little more red crinkle filling paper on top of the nuggets. Close up purse.

5. To make tag, stamp “Thanks” with Red Riding Hood ink and swirly symbol from Kindness Matters stamp set with Early Espresso ink on scrap piece of white card stock. Punch out with Big Shot and smallest Floral Frames Framelit. Punch a small hole in the top of the with 1/16" handheld circle hole punch. Tie onto Petite Purse with Cherry Cobble Baker’s Twine.
